Re: MUR 3774

Dear Mr. Bernstein:

I am in receipt of the above referenced matter dated May 20, 1993.

First, I would like to thank your office for the extension of time granted to me for filing my reply.

Please be advised that I have reviewed the complaint filed in this matter to the Federal Election Commission. Please be further advised of the following response on behalf of the Good Government Committee:

1. On or about November 18, 1992, the National Republican Senatorial Committee sent the Good Government Committee a Seven Thousand Dollar ($7,000.00) contribution to be used in a manner consistent with our charter for promoting good government.

2. On November 19, 1992, those monies were deposited into the Good Government Committee checking account. (A copy of said deposit slip is attached hereto and made a part hereof.)

3. The Good Government Committee has not made any contributions to Republican candidate Paul Coverdell in any political race in which he was a contestant in the state of Georgia. For that matter, the Good Government Committee has not contributed to any political candidate in the state of Georgia at any time.

Therefore, the Good Government Committee denies the allegations of the complaint as it relates to any wrongdoing on behalf of the Good Government Committee. If you have any further questions concerning this matter, I would be happy to answer them for you.

Sincerely,

N. Gunter Guy, Jr.

Sworn to and subscribed before me on this the 16th day of June, 1993.
